Betreff: - Journal of Human Rights Education (JHRE)

Dear Sir or Madam,

As you might know, the second issue of the Journal of Human Rights Education (JHRE) will be available in March 2010. If you have not sent us your subscription yet, you still have the possibility to send it to us (annual subscription national: CHF 30.-; annual subscription international: CHF 38.-; both fees incl. VAT and shipping charges) by email to: info@zmrbluzern.phz.ch.

The goal of the Journal for Human Rights Education (JHRE) is to foster the debate on Human Rights Education as an important contribution to the realization of Human Rights.

The first step is to determine the basic problems of Human Rights Education as well as to present new innovations and to discuss contemporary issues in Human Rights Education. All articles will be published in German and English, in addition there will be a short summary in English at the beginning of every article in German.

Secondly, there will be recommendations on literature, instruments, methods and materials for practical usage.

Thirdly there will be hints on events concerning Human Rights Education.

For the second and third part we kindly invite you to submit recommendations on literature, instruments, methods and materials as well as news and information on events before January 31st 2010 to the following address: info@zmrbluzern.phz.ch

For literature please provide

1. complete bibliographical information, including the price as well as
2. a short introduction on the content. Please also indicate
3. which interest group is addressed.

Example:

1. P. G. Kirchschräger/T. Kirchschräger, Menschenrechte und Terrorismus, Menschenrechtsbildung für die Schule Bd. I, Verlag Pestalozzianum, Zürich 2009 (CHF 29.-, EUR 18.-)
2. The series „Human Rights Education in Schools“ aims to give teachers an inside view of the contemporary issues of Human Rights and to provide teaching materials. The first edition focuses on terrorism and counter-terrorism measures as a threat to fundamental rights and Human Rights. After a short introduction the book provides recommendations for school lessons at the primary and secondary school level.
3. Primary and Secondary School Teachers

For events we ask you to name

1. title of the event
2. date
3. place
4. organizers
5. information on costs and registration
6. audience addressed
